

HOW TO WRITE THE EXPERIENCE SECTION ON LINKEDIN!

What is the experience section on LinkedIn?

The “Experience” section allows you to share your previous and current roles, responsibilities and details of your past work experience with your network.

Do you need a well-crafted experience section?

Yes! A well-crafted experience section increases the probability of hiring recruiters reaching out to you. Reach out to your network, there is a high possibility of you hearing back.

Where can I find this section?
